

ARTS

SUNDAY, JUNE 16, 2002

E4

Literary footnotes

MARGO CLASSE, world traveler and author of "Hello Italy!" will do a slide presentation and sign copies of her book Tuesday, June 18, 7 p.m., Barnes & Noble, Gateway.

ELIZABETH PLOURDE, author of "Hysterectomy & Ovary Removal: What All Women Need to Know," will discuss her book and sign copies of it Wednesday, June 19, 7 p.m., Barnes & Noble, Gateway.

SHELLY BRADY, author of "Ten Things I Learned from Bill Porter," will sign copies of her book Friday, June 21, 12 p.m., ZCMI Deseret Book.

ALLEN H. RICHARDSON, principal author of "1,000 Evidences for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints," and DAVID RICHARDSON, author of "The Enchanted Palace," will sign copies of their books, Saturday, June 22, 1-3 p.m., Media Play, Fort Union.

JEAN HOWARD, Salt Lake City resident and performance/biker poet, will perform her work Saturday, June 22, 8:30 p.m., Salt Lake Art Center,

Jean Howard

20 S. West Temple. She will be joined by fellow performance/biker poets, ROB VAN TUYLE (from Chicago) and DALLIN MAYBEE (from Salt Lake City). Maybee is a Northern Arapaho and Seneca Indian artist and performer. It is part of a gala called "Love, Lust and Motorcycles." Tickets are $150 per person and black tie or black leather are invited. For more information, call 328-4201, ex. 15.

ROY WEBB, U. Special Collections archivist and river-runner, will present a slide show and discussion of "The Lost World of Glen Canyon," Saturday, June 22, 7:30 p.m., Robbers Roost Bookstore, Torrey. Hosted by Entrada Institute.

FRED WOODS, BYU Professor of Church history and author of "Gathering to Nauvoo," will sign copies of his book Saturday, June 22, 10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m., Seagull Book, 1060 N. Main, Spanish Fork.

CAROLE RUBIN, author of "How to Get Your Lawn Off Grass: A North American Guide to Turning Off the Water Tap and Going Native," will give a presentation and sign copies of her book Monday, June 24, 6-8 p.m., The Garden Niche, 10650 S. 700 East, Sandy.

E-MAIL: dennis@desnews.com

Dallin Maybee